If you meet the guidelines, CCIS will pay a part of your child care cost. You will pay a part of the cost. This is called the family co-pay. For more information please visit:

CHILDLINK - Anyone who has a concern about a child's development can make a referral for a multi-disciplinary evaluation to determine eligibility for services. Physicians, social workers, case managers and parents can start the process by calling the City of Philadelphia's Early Intervention Intake Department at 215.685.4646. ChildLink's mission is to educate, empower and increase a family's capacity to support its children in reaching their highest potential. Our staff works in partnership with parents, early intervention specialists and therapists to evaluate each child's needs, identify outcomes, explore options and develop and Individualized Family Service Plan composed of supports and services for each eligible child and family.

Elwyn/SEEDS -Elwyn's Early Childhood Services has contracted with the Pennsylvania State Department of Education through its partnership with the Department of Public Welfare and the Office of Child Development and Early Learning (OCDEL) to provide Preschool Early Intervention to eligible young children in Philadelphia and the Chester-Upland area. This program is referred to as Special Education for Early Developmental Success (SEEDS). SEEDS provides Preschool Early Intervention for eligible children 3 to 5 years of age living in the city of Philadelphia and in the Chester-Upland area of Delaware County. SEEDS coordinates Preschool Early Intervention services, performs multi-disciplinary evaluations, and contracts with provider agencies for ongoing Preschool Early Intervention services. Children are served in the least restrictive environment possible to meet their educational and developmental needs. Locations can include the child's home, a Head Start center, a community day care or nursery school, or a center-based Preschool Early Intervention program. Services include special instruction, occupational therapy, speech therapy, physical therapy, and nursing or any combination of these. Do you think your child needs Early Intervention Services and is between the ages of 3 and 5 years old? Call 215-222-8054 to make an appointment for an evaluation. Do not hesitate to contact us with any questions, concerns or issues about SEEDS Preschool Early Intervention services.
